

The Friends and Family of Christ
(Acts 10:24)

Introduction:

1. In Acts 10 we read about the conversion of Cornelius and his household.
  - a. (vs.3-6) An angel instructed him to send for Peter who was in Joppa.
  - b. (vs.19-20) Peter was instructed to go with the men sent by Cornelius.
  - c. We are especially interested in something Cornelius did while he waited for Peter -- he "called together his kinsmen and near friends" (vs.24).
  - d. Cornelius wanted his friends and family to be present for that special occasion when Peter preached the Gospel.
2. Today is a special day for the Greater Daytona congregation -- one year ago, God made it possible for us to begin worshipping in our meeting place.
3. Earlier this year we decided to do what Cornelius did -- we have invited friends and family members to worship with us on this special occasion.
4. Since today is "Friends and Family Day," it seems appropriate for us to study passages that teach us about "the friends and family of Christ."
